

STATE of WISCONSIN

OFFICE of the GOVERNOR

Proclamation

WHEREAS; dyslexia is a learning disability characterized by difficulties related to reading, writing, spelling, and otherwise processing written language; and

WHEREAS; dyslexia is considered to be the most common form of learning disability, and it is estimated that it affects up to 20 percent of people, including kids and families across Wisconsin; and

WHEREAS; dyslexia is a lifelong condition, but it can be substantially remediated with early diagnosis, effective therapy, and assistive technology training; and

WHEREAS; raising awareness of dyslexia and its signs and symptoms can better equip students, parents, and educators to address its challenges in school and at home; and

WHEREAS; this month, the state of Wisconsin joins individuals with dyslexia and their families, along with dedicated agencies and organizations across the state, in spreading awareness of dyslexia and encouraging effective, evidence-based services to support affected individuals;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim October 2023 as

DYSLEXIA AWARENESS MONTH

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state's residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 29th day of September 2023.
